Privacy Notice.

Vetlaw is committed to data privacy and protection and this notice details the personal information that we gather in respect of cases in which we have been instructed by yourselves.

Vetlaw will only process that information as it applies to the legitimate interests of the case in question and based on your consent.

All electronic data is stored on our secure database on password protected computers and in secure storage at our office.

Vetlaw reports will be sent in a password protected word document, the password to be sent in a separate email.

Vetlaw does not, without your express permission share any such data.

Vetlaw will retain the data for 12 months after the closure of the case and it will then be destroyed.

To exercise any data privacy rights please contact the Company Directors of Vetlaw by email to mf@vetlaw.co.uk.
